

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr Thomas Tegos, born on the 2-7-1962, graduated from the Medical School of the Aristotelion University of Thessaloniki, Greece on the 22-3-1989.

He awarded a PhD in the Imperial College, St Mary's Hospital, London University, United Kingdom on the 28-2-2001, awarded the Imperial College Diploma (DIC), Imperial College, London University, United Kingdom on the 30-6-2001.

He awarded the Title of Specialization in Neurology (Greece) on the 8-10-2002, awarded the Permission to perform ultrasound within the domain of Neurology, in Greece on the 5- 6-2006.

He had Postgraduate studies in the University of London, UK, in Neurophysiology (2000-2001), and in Hyperacute Stroke Management (2016).

He awarded an MSc in Health Management, Frederick University, Nicosia, Cyprus- on 21-6-2018.

His academic progress in Neuroscience section, Medical Department, Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki, Greece was as follows: Lecturer in Neurology (12-10-2005), Assistant Professor in Neurology (15-12-2010), Permanent Assistant Professor in Neurology (21-10-2015), Associate Professor in Neurology (15-2-2018).

He supervised many MSc in the University of Thessali and Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki (AUTH), PhD in the AUTH, Greece.

He participated as a member in the organizing/scientific committees in many Congresses, in many scientific associations, in committees for the upgrade of members of the Medical School of the AUTH and University of Thessali, in committees in AUTH, committees in Medical School in AUTH, and committees in the AHEPA Hospital.

He participated as invited speaker in many Congresses and in one Congress for Health management, participated as coordinator in round tables and oral presentation/poster sessions, participated as commentator in round tables and oral presentations in many Congresses.

He presented many oral presentations/posters. He awarded many presentation prizes, He is a writer in many articles, participated in chapter writing in many books.

He participated in 4 International Multicenter Studies, and also he is a reviewer in 4 journals. He is a section editor for neurological issues in one journal and member of the editorial board in another one, and he had the special edition in the translation in Greek of an American Neurology Textbook.

